WELCOME FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to the 2024 DIRECTV Holiday Bowl!

On behalf of the community of San Diego and Sports San Diego, I would like to welcome you to San Diego's Biggest Holiday Party! For those of you who are visiting San Diego for the first time or here for a return visit, we are thrilled to host you in our beautiful city to watch this exciting match-up. We can't wait to see the Syracuse Orange vs Washington State Cougars face off at Snapdragon Stadium!

This game marks the 45th playing of the DIRECTV Holiday Bowl. Since our establishment in 1978, the bowl has presented amazing matchups and exciting, down-to-the-wire finishes, involving some of the greatest players of all-time, such as Steve Young, Eric Dickerson, Aaron Rodgers and Barry Sanders. In addition, the Holiday Bowl and its related events have contributed over $1 billion in total economic value to this community, an accomplishment which makes us all very proud.

We would like to welcome back DIRECTV as the game's title sponsor this year. Thank you for your partnership and for empowering Sports San Diego to continue to produce America's Most Exciting Bowl Game. We are so fortunate to benefit from your tremendous support. I would also like to express our gratitude to our media partner, FOX Sports, for their partnership and first-class coverage of our game.

Our success over the years is due in large part to our strong civic partnerships: San Diego Tourism Marketing District; City of San Diego; County of San Diego; Port of San Diego; and San Diego Tourism Authority. Thank you to all the officials and representatives for your continued loyalty and support of our mission to drive economic benefit to our amazing city.

Finally, I would like to thank all of our generous sponsors who made this Bowl Week possible, and to our volunteer Ambassadors who dedicate thousands of hours throughout the year to ensure a memorable Bowl Game Experience for all who participate.

There is no better place to be in December than San Diego, so enjoy this year's DIRECTV Holiday Bowl. Happy Holidays and Happy New Year!

Sincerely,

WELCOME FROM DIRECTV

Welcome to the DIRECTV Holiday Bowl!

You're in for a holiday treat as the Syracuse Orange and the Washington State Cougars meet on the gridiron in the 45th edition of this dynamic event.

Our commitment at DIRECTV to connect fans to their favorite sports, teams, and players runs deep. That's why we're honored to sponsor this year's DIRECTV Holiday Bowl for the second straight year as it returns to its original site in Mission Valley at Snapdragon Stadium. This venue will also serve as the home of the MLS expansion San Diego Football Club starting in March 2025, and DIRECTV is proud to be a founding sponsor of that team. These are just a few ways DIRECTV is helping local sports fans enjoy live action throughout the year.

Reaching beyond San Diego, DIRECTV also connects sports fans to beloved events and teams as a leading nationwide provider of live sports on TV. We've made it easier than ever to stream college football and other sports at home and on the go during bowl season and throughout the year.

As a part of this year's DIRECTV Holiday Bowl, I welcome you to join us as we celebrate the Jenkins family as they present today's game ball to recognize their commitment to our country and how they have overcome unthinkable obstacles. While stationed in Hawaii in the United States Marine Corps., Marine Sergeant Dustin Jenkins and his family welcomed their new baby boy, Noah, who was born with a heart defect. Noah received open heart surgery at Rady Children's Hospital in San Diego at one week old. During his stay and recovery, Noah's family found care and comfort in the Ronald McDonald House Charities® of San Diego. Noah is three years old and healthy, and the family is grateful for the services the House provided during their stay.

As a proud partner of Ronald McDonald House Charities® nationwide, DIRECTV celebrates the organization's commitment to helping families feel at home while away from home. That's why we provide MyFree DIRECTV to all families who stay at a house so they can enjoy a curated lineup of entertainment, sports, and news at no cost.

The DIRECTV Holiday Bowl and all the exciting activities that bring it to life are only possible because of the dedication and commitment of the incredible volunteers at Sports San Diego. We applaud them for their shared commitment to San Diego.

From our family to yours, happy holidays from DIRECTV.

TONIGHT'S GAME

The DIRECTV Holiday Bowl gained a reputation as "America's Most Exciting Bowl Game" in its formative years with several shootouts included among decisions that were in doubt until the final seconds.

The 45th annual game between No. 21 Syracuse and Washington State features two teams that produce plenty of points.

"This matchup is sure to make for another DIRECTV Holiday Bowl high-scoring classic," said Mark Neville, CEO of Sports San Diego, which stages the annual bowl game. "Our scoreboard operator will need to be on his game for this one."

Syracuse (9-3), which tied for fourth place in the ACC, is eyeing a 10-win season for only the eighth time in the school's 136-year history. Washington State (8-4) is looking for a solid finish after a strong start in which the Cougars won eight of their first nine games.

Syracuse and Washington State are sharing the field for only the second time. The Orange won 52-25 in a 1979 meeting.

The Holiday Bowl is returning to its Mission Valley roots for this year's game, which will be played at Snapdragon Stadium following three years downtown at Petco Park.

BOWL HISTORIES

This is the eighth bowl game over the past decade for Washington State, which is making the 19th bowl appearance overall in school history. The Cougars have an 8-10 bowl record.

It is the fifth Holiday Bowl appearance for Washington State, which helped establish the Holiday Bowl's reputation in 1981 against BYU in a Cougars vs. Cougars matchup. That game was in doubt until the final seconds, with BYU hanging on for a 38-36 victory.

Washington State defeated Texas 28-20 in the 2003 Holiday Bowl. The Cougars made back-to-back Holiday Bowl appearances during the 2016-17 seasons, losing to Minnesota (17-12) and Michigan State (42-17).

Syracuse is 16-11-1 in 28 previous bowl games. That first win came in a 23-14 victory over Texas in the 1960

Cotton Bowl, completing a perfect 11-0 season in which the Orangemen were declared national champions. This is Syracuse's first Holiday Bowl appearance.

ABOUT WASHINGTON STATE

Washington State possesses one the nation's most productive offenses, scoring 36.8 points a game this season.

That was with quarterback John Mateer behind center, however. Mateer, who leads the nation in combined touchdowns with 44, will not play in this game after entering the NCAA transfer portal.

It is a similar situation to last year's Holiday Bowl, when USC quarterback Caleb Williams opted out. Backup quarterback Miller Moss stepped in and threw a Holiday Bowl-record six touchdown passes in the Trojans' win over Louisville.

TONIGHT'S GAME

Washington State backup quarterback Zevi Eckhaus gets the chance to start in Mateer's absence, no doubt hoping for some Miller magic. Eckhaus comes into the game after attempting only seven passes all season. He did complete six of them.

Wide receivers Kyle Williams (60 catches, 1,026 yards, 13 TDs) and Josh Meredith (34 catches, 442 yards, 2 TDs) are the team's top receivers. Tight end Cooper Mathers has only 13 catches, but six of them have been for touchdowns.

Mateer and running back Wayshawn Parker, who also entered the portal, accounted for 1,561 of the team's 2,059 rushing yards, so the run game will be a question mark. Running backs Leo Pulalasi (51 carries, 241 yards, 2 TDs) and Djouvensky Schlenbaker (41 carries, 145 yards, 3 TDs) are the next men up for the Cougars.

Washington State kicker Dean Janikowski, a graduate of San Diego's Cathedral Catholic High School, is 8 of 11 on field goals this season with a long of 52 yards.

Washington State's defense is allowing 28.1 points a game, with 22 takeaways (14 interceptions).

Defensive standouts include linebackers Kyle Thornton (67 tackles, four quarterback hurries) and Kapena Gushiken (51 tackles, five pass breakups and free safety Tyson Durant (seven pass breakups, two interceptions).

ABOUT SYRACUSE

Syracuse's offense produced 32.6 points a game while the Orange defense allowed 28.7 points.

Quarterback Kyle McCord (367-for-558, 4,326 yards, 29 TDs/12 INTs), an Ohio State transfer, leads the nation in passing yardage. McCord had four touchdown passes in a game on three occasions, against Ohio, Georgia Tech and Holy Cross, and threw for a season-high 470 yards in a late-season win over UConn.

For those wondering, the Holiday Bowl record for passing yards is 576 by BYU quarterback Ty Detmer against Penn State in the 1989 game. That gives McCord something to shoot for against the Cougars.

McCord's top targets are wide receivers Trebor Pena (79 catches, 871 yards, 7 TDs), Jackson Meeks (73 catches, 911 yards, 7 TDs) and Oronde Gadsden II (69 catches, 860 yards, 5 TDs) and running back LeQuint Allen (61 catches, 476 yards, 3 TDs).

Allen (211 carries, 901 yards, 14 TDs) is 99 yards away from a 1,000-yard rushing season.

On defense, linebacker Justin Barron had a team-high 86 tackles with 8 1/2 tackles for loss. He also led the Orange with five quarterback hurries. Defensive lineman Fadir Diggs was most successful reaching the QB, with 7 1/2 sacks among his 14 tackles for loss.

Syracuse's nine interceptions were spread among eight players, led by defensive back Jayden Bellamy with a pair of picks. Defensive back Clarence Lewis led the team with 11 pass breakups.

Kicker Jackson Kennedy took over the field goal-kicking responsibilities the second half of the season, making 7 of 9 attempts with a long of 44 yards. Punter Jack Stonehouse is among the nation's leaders with a 45.91 punting average.
