WELCOME FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to the 2025 Trust & Will Holiday Bowl!

On behalf of the community of San Diego and Sports San Diego, I would like to welcome you to San Diego's Biggest Holiday Party! For those of you who are visiting San Diego for the first time or here for a return visit, we are thrilled to host you in our beautiful city to watch this exciting match-up. We can't wait to see Arizona and SMU face off at Snapdragon Stadium!

This game marks the 46th playing of the Trust & Will Holiday Bowl. Since our establishment in 1978, the bowl has presented amazing matchups and exciting, down-to-the-wire finishes, involving some of the greatest players of all-time, such as Steve Young, Eric Dickerson, Aaron Rodgers and Barry Sanders. In addition, the Holiday Bowl and its related events have contributed over $1 billion in total economic value to this community, an accomplishment which makes us all very proud.

We would like to thank Trust & Will for your partnership and for empowering Sports San Diego to continue to produce America's Most Exciting Bowl Game. We are so fortunate to benefit from your tremendous support. I would also like to express our gratitude to our media partner, FOX Sports, for their partnership and first-class coverage of our game.

Our success over the years is due in large part to our strong civic partnerships: San Diego Tourism Marketing District; City of San Diego; County of San Diego; Port of San Diego; and San Diego Tourism Authority. Thank you to all the officials and representatives for your continued loyalty and support of our mission to drive economic benefit to our amazing city.

Finally, I would like to thank all of our generous sponsors who made this Bowl Week possible, and to our volunteer Ambassadors who dedicate thousands of hours throughout the year to ensure a memorable Bowl Game Experience for all who participate.

The holidays aren't over until we say they're over!

Sincerely,

Nancy Rohland-Heinrich

WELCOME FROM TRUST & WILL

Welcome to the Trust & Will Holiday Bowl!

Tonight, we celebrate an incredible college football matchup, a beloved holiday tradition, and the moments that bring families together during this special time of year. Bowl games like this one are about pride, perseverance, and connection — values that extend far beyond the field.

At Trust & Will, our mission is to help every family plan for the future with clarity, confidence, and peace of mind. In 2025, more than one million families have now used Trust & Will to create an estate plan, marking a meaningful milestone in our journey.

We're proud to call San Diego home and honored to sponsor an event that reflects the importance of legacy and community. This year, Trust & Will took a significant step forward by formally becoming a Public Benefit Corporation, legally embedding our commitment to families, communities, and long-term impact into how we operate. We also continued our work as a Certified B Corporation, holding ourselves accountable to high standards of transparency, responsibility, and purpose.

Our impact continues to expand nationwide. Today, Trust & Will supports more than 20,000 financial advisors and partners with over 200 institutions and organizations, helping bring estate planning to people who have historically been underserved. Through partnerships with banks, nonprofits, and community organizations, we're making long-term planning more accessible and more integrated into everyday financial life.

Innovation remains central to how we serve families and professionals. In 2025, we introduced new technology and AI-powered tools that simplify complex documents, reduce friction, and provide more personalized guidance — all designed to make estate planning easier to understand, more efficient, and aligned with how people live today.

The Trust & Will Holiday Bowl wouldn't be possible without the incredible dedication of the volunteers and organizers at Sports San Diego. Their commitment to this event and to showcasing San Diego on a national stage is extraordinary, and we're grateful to partner with them.

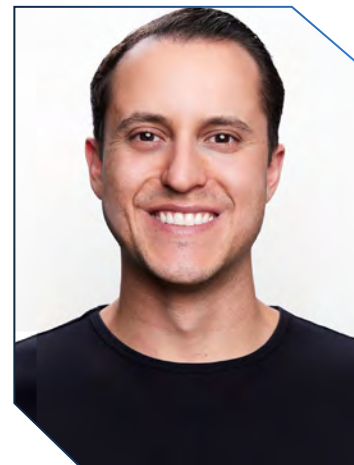

From all of us at Trust & Will, thank you for being here. Enjoy the game, celebrate the season, and may today's moments become part of the legacy you build for generations to come.

Happy Holidays,

TONIGHT'S GAME

The Trust & Will Holiday Bowl has built its reputation as "America's Most Exciting Bowl Game" on shootouts and last-minute finishes.

The 46th annual game between No. 17 Arizona and SMU does, indeed, feature productive offenses. But it also includes a pair of defenses that rank among the top four teams in the nation in turnovers.

"San Diego is in for an amazing event with these teams," said Mark Neville, CEO of Sports San Diego, which stages the annual bowl game. "This matchup is a dream. We couldn't have asked for much more than Arizona vs. SMU."

Arizona (9-3), which tied for fourth place in the Big 12, is aiming for a 10-win season for just the fifth time in program's 126-year history. SMU (8-4) tied for second place in the ACC, one game behind Virginia.

Arizona and SMU are sharing the field for only the third time. It's the first get-together in 40 years. The series stands at 1-1, with SMU winning 29-7 in 1938 and Arizona winning 28-6 in 1985.

This is the second straight year the Holiday Bowl is being played at Snapdragon Stadium. It is the first time for a post-New Year's kickoff in the bowl's history.

BOWL HISTORIES

This is the eighth bowl appearance in the past decade for SMU, which is 7-11-1 all-time in 21 bowl games (its 2020 and 2021 contests were canceled because of COVID-19).

SMU qualified for the College Football Playoff last season, losing 38-10 to Penn State in the first round. The Mustangs are looking for their first bowl victory since a 43-10 win over Fresno State in the 2012 Hawaii Bowl.

This is the second Holiday Bowl visit for SMU. The Pony Express team led by running backs Eric Dickerson and Craig James led the team into the 1980 game. They lost 46-45 to BYU in a game regarded among the best bowl games in college football history.

"Growing up, I wasn't at the 1980 Holiday Bowl," SMU coach Rhett Lashlee said. "Actually, I wasn't alive yet, but Eric Dickerson, Craig James, and all those guys told me what a great game it was until about three minutes to go.

"We have so much respect for what this bowl game has meant for decades. For our school, our fan base, and our players to get to play in this game is a huge honor. We're really excited."

Arizona has a 10-11-1 record in 22 previous bowl appearances. That includes a 38-24 win over Oklahoma in the 2023 Alamo Bowl in the team's last bowl game.

The Wildcats have made two previous trips to the Holiday Bowl, beating Nebraska 23-20 in the 1998 game for a school-record 12th victory and No. 4 final ranking in the AP poll. Arizona lost to the Cornhuskers 33-0 in the 2009 Holiday Bowl.

"I was also here in 1998 when my brother played in this game," Arizona coach Brent Brennan said. "I have a lot of really cool memories with the Holiday Bowl, San Diego and the University of Arizona."

Arizona actually has made one other postseason appearance locally. The Wildcats played in the San Diego East-West Christmas Classic on Dec. 26, 1921, at Balboa Stadium, losing 38-0 to Kentucky's Centre Colonels.

ABOUT THE WILDCATS

Arizona, which joined the Big 12 last season, comes into the game riding a five-game winning streak, highlighted with a 23-7 win over archrival Arizona State in the last week of the regular season.

Other victories in the streak came over Colorado (52-17), Kansas (24-20), Cincinnati (30-24) and Baylor (41-17).

The Wildcats rank 33rd in the nation in scoring offense (32.6 ppg) and 19th in scoring defense (18.9 ppg).

Quarterback Noah Fifita (247-for-385, 2,963 yards, 26 TD/5 INT passing/101 carries, 143 yards, 3 TD rushing) leads the offense.

Kris Hutson (57 catches, 740 yards, 4 TD), Javin Whatley (38-443, 4 TD) and Tre Spivey (21-359, 6 TD) are Fifita's top targets.

Running backs Ismail Mahdi (123 carries, 791 yards, 4 TD) and Kedrick Reescano (83-394, 9 TD) lead the ground game.

Arizona's defense has collected 19 interceptions and forced 10 fumbles, recovering nine of the loose balls. The 28 takeaways rank third in the nation. The Wildcats have 12 giveaways, and their plus-16 turnover margin leads the nation.

Defensive standouts include defensive backs Dalton Johnson (97 tackles, 4 INT, 7 pass breakups), Genesis Smith (77 tackles, 8 pass breakups) and Treydan Stukes (52 tackles, 4 INT, 6 pass breakups) and linebacker Taye Brown (84 tackles).

ABOUT THE MUSTANGS

SMU won six of seven games late in the season before a 38-35 loss to Cal to conclude the regular season.

Among the highlights to SMU's season was a 26-20 overtime victory over No. 10 Miami. The Mustangs also beat Clemson (35-24), Boston College (45-13) and Louisville (38-6) during the second half of the season.

SMU ranks 30th in the nation in scoring offense (32.9 ppg) and 32nd in scoring defense (20.7 ppg).

The Mustangs are led by quarterback Kevin Jennings (279-for-422, 3,363 yards, 26 TD/10 INT), who has spread the ball among nine receivers with at least 16 receptions. Wide receiver Jordan Hudson (56 catches, 749 yards, 6 TD) is his top target.

TJ Harden (161 carries, 747 yards, 7 TD) and Chris Johnson Jr. (62 carries, 463 yards, 4 TD) are the team's top two running backs.

Like Arizona, SMU's defense also has been opportunistic. It ranks fourth in the nation with 27 turnovers (17 interceptions, 10 fumble recoveries). The Mustangs have 16 giveaways, and they're tied for eighth nationally in turnover margin at plus-11.

Defensive leaders include safeties Ahmaad Moses (91 tackles, 5 INT) and Isiah Nwokobia (80 tackles, 2 INT 7 pass breakups) and defensive end Isaiah Smith (51 tackles, 8 1/2 sacks).

Defensive linemen Terry Webb, Cameron Robertson and Jeffrey M'ba have five sacks apiece, helping the SMU defense rank 18th in the nation with 34 sacks.
